Terms and Conditions

1. Sku numbers take preference over descriptions.
2. The quoted values are based on a Rand/Dollar rate of exchange. The values may change if the exchange rate changes prior to a valid order being received.
3. The quoted values are based on supplier rates at time of quotation. The values may change if the supplier rates changes prior to a valid order being received.
4. You should request updated quotations on the day of placing an order to verify if any quoted rates have changed.
5. All orders are subject to the ordering party having sufficient credit available.
6. SauTech (Pty) Ltd will validate the contents of an order upon receipt.
7. Orders for subscriptions will continue indefinitely until SauTech (Pty) Ltd receives a valid request for the subscription to be suspended where suspensions are possible.
8. The purchase order number/s received at inception will be used for the duration of each subscription unless otherwise specified
9. Orders received by SauTech (Pty) Ltd are considered final and cannot be cancelled except where SauTech (Pty) Ltd is unable to sufficiently validate and/or process an order.
10. The delivery times are non-binding commercial estimates which SauTech (Pty) Ltd will make all reasonable efforts to achieve.
11. Errors and Omissions excluded.
12. Once any key code purchased has been activated, no credits will be possible.
