- ↪ Expressions defined in this Agreement shall bear the same meanings in schedules or annexures to this Agreement which do not themselves contain their own conflicting definitions;
- ↪ The expiration or termination of this Agreement shall not affect such of the provisions of this Agreement as expressly provide that they will operate after any such expiration or termination or which of necessity must continue to have effect after such expiration or termination, notwithstanding that the clauses themselves do not expressly provide for this;
- ↪ A person includes juristic legal persons and vice versa.
- ↪ A gender includes reference to the other.

3 BACKGROUND OF SERVICES

The Supplier is contracted to perform the following services to WalvisBay Medipark T/A Welwitschia Hospital:

- ↪ Backups
- ↪ SD WAN – Office to Armada Data Centre

3.1 Place of Service Delivery

The Services covered by this Agreement are to be delivered at the address or addresses given in Schedule C to this Agreement.

3.2 Changes to Services

Either party may propose changes to the scope, nature or time schedule of the Services being performed under this Agreement. The Parties will mutually agree to any proposed changes, including adjustments to fees and expenses as a result of any changes to the Services. All changes are to be subject to the Change control procedures included in Schedule D to this Agreement and must be approved in writing by both Parties.

3.3 Fees and Expenses

All services defined throughout this Agreement are set out in Schedule H to this Agreement.

4 PERFORMANCE, TRACKING AND REPORTING

4.1 Key Personnel Changes

Key personnel are not required to be specifically named within this Agreement but the Supplier will notify the Client in advance of changes to any key personnel that could affect the delivery of the Services to the Client.

4.2 How each Service will be Monitored

The performance of each individual Service will be monitored. The methodology to be used in each case is outlined in Schedule E to this Agreement.

4.3 Benchmarks, Targets and Metrics to be Utilised

The benchmarks, targets and metrics to be used in the measurement of performance levels are defined in Schedule E to this Agreement.

5 SERVICE LEVELS

The Supplier shall render the Services in accordance with agreed Service levels and monitor the Service levels as set out under Schedule F.

- § Reports on actual service levels achieved will be provided to the Client upon request.
- § The Parties may, from time to time, add to or vary the Service Levels in accordance with the Contract Change Management Procedure (see Schedule E).
- § Both Parties shall on an on-going basis, pro-actively seek opportunities ("Opportunities"):
 - to achieve greater efficiencies in the provision of the Services; and/or
 - for the Client to achieve improvements in its business through the innovative use of information technology; and/or
 - To propose other innovative uses of information technology or innovative changes and/or improvements in the provision of the Services.
- § To this end, the Supplier shall, when Opportunities arise, propose to the Client, on a case-by-case basis, the possible implementation of proposed business initiatives that would result in achieving greater efficiency and effectiveness in the use of information technology by the Client, and other consequential business benefits. Such Supplier's proposals will be prepared at the Supplier's expense and shall address the manner of implementation of the proposed initiatives, the timing thereof and the impact on the Services Charges, if any and the manner or extent to which both Parties will share in the benefits derived from the efficiencies gained.

The Client is under no obligation to accept any such proposals. If the Client accepts a proposal in writing, the Parties shall implement it.

6 SUPPORT AND SERVICE DESK SERVICES

The Supplier will provide on-going assistance to the Client to support the Services provided. This will include comprehensive Service desk facilities and Hosting Services. The Service desk and hosting services are defined in Schedule G to this Agreement.

7 COMPENSATION

7.1 Fees

The Fees payable for performing either the Standard Services or the Non-standard Services are to be in accordance with the basis as defined in Schedule H to this Agreement.

7.2 Adjustment to Fees

The Service Fees shall be adjusted annually on the anniversary of the Commencement Date in the manner as provided for in Schedule H and if applicable; and will, if applicable, be adjusted with any Service Level Credits calculated and agreed in accordance with Schedule H.

7.3 Reimbursable Expenses

Reimbursable expenses mean agreed incidental services reasonably incurred by the Supplier in performing its obligations, plus a 10% administrative fee. Expenses that may be considered as reimbursable are stated in Schedule H to this Agreement. No expenses shall be incurred without the prior written approval of the Client.

7.4 Invoices

The Supplier will submit invoices to the Client for professional fees in advance and agreed reimbursable expenses in arrears on a monthly basis. Each invoice will clearly state the work performed, hours worked and reimbursable expenses incurred.

7.5 Payment Terms

All fees and expenses are to be paid to the Supplier, in South-African Rand, by Internet transfer of funds to the account designated by the Supplier. All invoices are payable within 30 (THIRTY) days from the receipt of the invoice. Any amounts disputed in good faith may be deducted from the invoice and the remainder must be paid by the due date. The disputed amount should be notified in writing to the Supplier within 7 (SEVEN) days of receipt of the invoice giving the reasons for withholding payment. Upon receipt of the Client's dispute notice, the Supplier and Client will work together in good faith to resolve such disputes in a prompt and mutually acceptable manner. The Client agrees to pay any disputed amounts within 5 (FIVE) days once the issues have been resolved.

7.6 VAT

The Supplier is registered for Value Added Tax and must add VAT as set out by the South African Revenue Services to all amounts quoted within and outside of this Agreement and is payable by The Client. All amounts or quotations arising from or outside this Agreement exclude the VAT unless clearly specified.

7.7 Interest for Late Payment

Any undisputed amount due by either Party whether in terms of this clause or any other clause of the Agreement, which is not paid on due date shall attract interest at Prime Rate percentage points, calculated 15 (fifteen) days after the specified due date of such undisputed amount until the date of payment, both days inclusive, compounded monthly.

8 CUSTOMER DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

8.1 Processing and Authorization of Invoices

The Client undertakes to process and settle invoices by the due dates.

8.2 Client Personnel, Facilities and Resources

The Client will ensure the Supplier has timely access to appropriate Client personnel and will arrange for the Supplier personnel to have suitable and safe access to the Client's facilities and systems.

8.3 Approvals and Information

The Client will respond promptly, and in any case, within five working days, to any Supplier requests to provide direction, information, approvals, authorisations or decisions that are reasonably necessary for the Supplier to perform the services.

9 WARRANTIES AND REMEDIES

9.1 Quality of Service

The Supplier warrants that the Services will be performed in a professional and workmanlike manner consistent with industry standards reasonably applicable to such services. If the Client considers that a breach of this warranty has occurred and notifies the Supplier in writing stating the nature of the breach, then the Supplier will be required to urgently correct any affected services in order that they comply with the warranty. Where such a breach is capable of remedy, the Supplier shall correct the breach within 7 (seven) days of notification thereof.

9.2 Indemnification

If, as a result of the Supplier's negligence, the Client or Client's employees suffer injury or Property damage, the Supplier will reimburse the Client for that portion of any damages for which the Supplier is found to be liable.

9.3 Third Party Claims

The Supplier warrants that any works of authorship written by the Supplier's personnel will not infringe any third-party copyrights, patents or trade secrets. If a third-party act against the Client for any infringements of this nature, then the Supplier will, at its own expense, settle the claim or arrange to defend the Client in such proceedings, and, in such circumstances, the Supplier will pay all settlement costs, damages, and legal fees and expenses finally so awarded.

9.4 3rd Party Vendor Contracts

Any Contract, external vendors, software or hardware purchased by the Client during the contract duration, the Supplier will not be held liable for the support required on the specific product. The Supplier will however liaise and cooperate in its respective support capacity with the Supplier to rectify and resolve the issues within a reasonable time.

9.5 Software and Application Licensing

9.5.1 Licensing

The Client is responsible for ensuring that all software used by its staff or affiliates and or contractors are fully licensed under its respective Agreements. The Supplier will not take responsibility for unlicensed products and will configure and support the software only on behalf of The Client. The Supplier will report the discrepancies, surpluses and shortfall of licenses in writing to The Client. The Client agrees to rectify the licensing as soon as reasonably possible.

9.5.2 The Hosting Centre Licensing

The Supplier warrants that the software the Supplier uses in the rendering of the Services or that it makes available to the Client for use in the rendering of the Services, is duly and properly licensed for the use and the extent of the use thereof, is currently under software maintenance and will be kept under software maintenance for the duration of the use thereof. The Supplier further warrants that it has obtained the written approval of the relevant software vendor/s:

- ✎ For the use, management and maintenance of such software by itself, on its own equipment and at its own premises or on the equipment of the Client and its premises;
- ✎ The Supplier shall forthwith and at the request of the Client, make such written approval available to the Client.

The Supplier has authorization from Microsoft to act on its behalf as a Microsoft Service Provider in terms of Licensing its hosted application for the purpose of the Suppliers' business and then renting these licenses to his Clients.

9.6 Exclusions

Neither Party is responsible for any infringements to third party copyrights, patents or trade secrets where the other Party has made amendments to original documents and similar works prepared without the express approval of the relevant Party, or where the other Party fails to use the most recent versions of such works that have been delivered by a Party.

9.7 Defaulting Performances

In the event of any defective performance from the Supplier or failure to furnish the agreed level of service, the Supplier will make reasonable efforts to restore the service to a good operating condition on an urgent basis.

9.8 Force Majeure

Neither Party shall have any claim against the other Party ("the Affected Party") for any delay or failure of the Affected Party to carry out any of its obligations under this Agreement (except for a payment obligation in respect of Services already delivered but specifically excluding Services to be paid in advance) arising from or attributable to acts of God, war, terrorism, government, labour action or unrest, failure of Suppliers or contractors or any other cause whatsoever beyond the control of the Affected Party ("force majeure").

The performance of the obligations of the Affected Party shall, be suspended for the duration of the force majeure, which shall be deemed to commence only upon the date of written notice by the Affected Party to the other Party. A Party subject to force majeure shall take all steps that may reasonably be required to mitigate the effects thereof or to bring it to an end. Upon cessation of the force majeure, this Agreement shall again become fully operative and the Affected Party shall immediately resume its performance.

If the suspension of performance continues for more than thirty (30) consecutive calendar days, then either Party may summarily terminate this Agreement by written notice to the other Party, prior to the cessation of the force majeure.

10 SECURITY

10.1 Physical Access

The Client is to ensure that the Supplier's employees and sub-contractors are given reasonable authorised access to premises and equipment in order that the Services may be delivered and maintained in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

10.2 Logical Access

The Client is to ensure that the Supplier's employees and sub-contractors are given necessary access to the software and systems in order that the Services may be delivered and maintained in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

10.3 Compliance with Client Security Policies

In the event that the Client operates formal security policies, the Supplier will ensure that its employees are made aware of such policies and will also ensure on-going compliance with these policy statements. The Client will provide the Supplier with up to date information on its security policies and will keep the Supplier informed about any changes to these policies. Where no policies are in place the Supplier shall ensure that its employees and representatives act in accordance with international standards in terms of security and access to the Client's premises or systems.

10.4 Information and Data Security Measures

Data encrypted through HTTPS Connection.

11 INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

Both Parties acknowledge the Intellectual Property Rights of the other party whether registered or not.

- § Subject to the provisions of this clause, unless otherwise agreed, the Parties and their respective Suppliers shall retain all existing and future Intellectual Property Rights in their data, information, software and hardware, tools and other materials including any future enhancements, improvements and modifications thereof; whether stored on disk, tape, installed on any system or otherwise and whether or not the same is at any time placed in the possession or control of the other Party.
- § During this Agreement, the Client shall, to the extent that it is legally entitled to do so, provide the Supplier with the non-exclusive Rights to use or modify any software, data and information or any other Rights required for the purposes of providing the Services, subject to the specific terms and conditions provided to the Supplier regarding such utilisation.
- § Subject to the provisions of any applicable licensing Agreement, any work created or invention identified or any other Intellectual Property Rights developed at the Client's specific instance and request (in writing) in the course of and for the provision of the Services by the Supplier or any Sub-Contractor of the Supplier that is fully funded by the Client shall be the Property of and for the exclusive benefit of the Client. The Supplier shall deliver, or procure delivery from its representatives, of same and the necessary assignments of copyright or other Intellectual Property Rights.

11.1 Court Orders

If the receiving party receives a Court Order to divulge any confidential information belonging to the disclosing party, then the receiving party is permitted to release such information to the court in accordance with any Court Order so served. Unless ordered in said Court Order, the receiving party must notify the disclosing party of such order to disclose and the information it is ordered to disclose.

11.2 Destruction of Data and Records or Return on Termination

Upon termination of this Agreement, the receiving party, at the option of the disclosing party, will return all confidential information belonging to the other party.

11.3 System Confidentiality – Shared Environment

The Supplier warrants that all Client information, hosted on a shared virtualized infrastructure are protected due to the following configurations.

- § Authorized Sautech staff have login information.
- § Microsoft Active Directory configuration with different organizational units.

- § SQL Server are setup with the core Microsoft technologies and guidelines.
- § All DMZ's and Network are configured and supported by our 3 Tier Network and Internet Security.
- § No external access to SQL server, only application layer access.

12 DISPUTE RESOLUTION

12.1 Informal

If the Parties are unable to resolve any dispute resulting from this Agreement by means of joint co-operation or discussion between the individuals directly involved with the execution of this Agreement, within 7 (seven) days after a dispute arises or such extended time period as the Parties may in writing allow, then such a dispute shall be submitted to the most senior executives of the Parties who shall endeavour to resolve this dispute within 5 (five) days after it has been referred to them in writing;

Should the dispute not be resolved in the aforesaid manner, then it shall be resolved by way of arbitration in accordance with the provisions of 12.2 below:

12.2 Arbitration

12.2.1 If the Parties Agree to refer the Dispute to Arbitration, each Party:

Agrees that the Arbitration will be held at a mutually agreed venue in accordance with the then current rules of AFSA ("the Rules") by 1 (one) arbitrator appointed by Agreement between the Parties. If the Parties cannot agree on the arbitrator within a period of 10 (ten) Business Days after the date on which the Parties agreed in writing to refer the dispute to arbitration the arbitrator shall be appointed by the Secretariat of AFSA;

Expressly consents to any arbitration in terms hereof being conducted as a matter of urgency; and Irrevocably authorises the other Party to apply on behalf of the Parties in writing to the Secretariat of AFSA in terms of article 23(1) of the Rules for the arbitration to be conducted on an urgent basis.

Subject to clause below, the decision or award resulting from arbitration shall be final and binding on the Parties, and may be made an order of court at the instance of either Party to dispute. The Parties hereby irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction of the South African Gauteng High Court of the Republic of South Africa (Johannesburg) should either Party wish to make the arbitrator's award an order of court.

There shall be a right of appeal as provided for in article 22 of the Rules.

The arbitrator will be held in camera, in the English language and will be kept confidential by the Parties.

The provisions of this clause shall not preclude any Party from access to an appropriate court of law for interim relief in the form of an interdict, mandamus or order for specific performance pending the outcome of the mediation or arbitration in terms of this clause or in respect of such mediation or arbitration, for which purpose the Parties irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction of the South Gauteng High Court of the Republic of South Africa (Johannesburg).

13 LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

The Supplier is not responsible for any damages caused by the failure of the Client or its Affiliates or other Suppliers to perform their responsibilities.

Neither Party shall be liable to the other Party, whether in terms of any indemnity or otherwise, for any loss or damage that such other Party may suffer, to the extent that such loss or damage arises in whole or in part from any act or omission of the other Party or its affiliates.

Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Agreement, the aggregate liability of the Supplier to the Client in respect of all claims for damages, causes of actions and occurrences arising under this Agreement, or any of the Service Schedule forming part hereof, arising during each contract year shall be limited to 12 (twelve) months Fees as set out under this Agreement, subject to gross negligence or wilful misconduct and loss due to that.

Neither Party shall be liable to the other for a) any special or indirect damages whether within the contemplation of the Parties or not and / or b) loss of income or profit, howsoever arising, unless such losses or damages are the direct result of a Party's gross negligence or wilful misconduct.

The Parties shall keep each other fully and effectively indemnified against injury or death due to the negligent or wilful acts or omissions by such Party or its employees or agents acting in the course of their employment pursuant to this Agreement.

14 DURATION & TERMINATION

The Agreement shall be on a month to month contract basis.

14.1 Payment on Termination

In the event of termination of this Agreement for any cause, the Supplier will continue to be paid up to the effective date of termination for any fees or expenses due for services delivered up to that date.

14.1.1 Consequences of Termination

Upon termination of this Agreement, the Supplier (including its employees, representatives, subcontractors and agents) will continue to work up to the effective date of termination after which the Supplier shall cease to work immediately and shall forthwith deliver up to the Client in hard copy or in electronic form, all Client data, deliverables, output, work in progress and other products of the Services whether finished or unfinished, together with any other documents, information and working papers relating to the Services in order that the Client can provide full continuity of the Services or arrange for a third party service provider to provide full continuity of the Services from the date of termination.

15 GENERAL

15.1 Relationship

For the avoidance of doubt, the Parties record and agree that pursuant to the implementation of this Agreement the Supplier shall at all times act as an independent contractor.

Nothing in this Agreement shall constitute an employer / employee relationship or an agency or a partnership in any shape or form between the Parties nor authorise either of the Parties to incur any liability on behalf of the other of them, save to the extent expressly provided for herein.

15.2 Notices

Notices required under this Agreement are to be sent to the address and persons specified in Schedule I to this Agreement. Notices are to be sent in writing by registered post, recorded post, express courier service or be delivered personally.

Either Party may from time to time, by written notice to the other(s), vary its domicilium address to any other address within the Republic of South Africa which is not a post office box or poste restante.

All notices given in terms of this Agreement shall be in writing and any notice given by either Party to another ("the addressee") which:

is delivered by hand in a correctly addressed envelope to a responsible person during ordinary business hours at its chosen physical address or transmitted by telefacsimile by printout of a successful transmission, shall be deemed to have been received by the addressee on the first business day after the date of delivery or transmission, as the case may be;

is posted by pre-paid registered post from an address within the Republic of South Africa to the addressee at its domicilium address for the time being shall be deemed to have been received by the addressee on the tenth business day after the date of such posting; is delivered by email shall be deemed to have been received by the addressee only once the email has entered the information system of the recipient. A delivery receipt is obtained.

15.3 Standard of Care

Each party will act in good faith in the performance of its respective duties and responsibilities and will not unreasonably delay or withhold the giving of consent or approval required for the other party under this Agreement. Each party will provide an acceptable standard of care in its dealings with the other party and its employees.

15.4 Assignment

Neither party may assign or otherwise transfer this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other party. In the event that consent for assignment is given, the terms of this Agreement will be binding upon each party's respective successor.

15.5 Entire Agreement

This document constitutes the entire Agreement between the Parties and supersedes all other prior Agreements being written or verbal between the Parties for the provision of such services.

15.6 Severability

The provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed severable, and the unenforceability of any one of the provisions shall not affect the enforceability of other provisions. In the event that a provision is found to be unenforceable, the Parties shall substitute that provision with an enforceable provision that preserves the original intent and position of the Parties.

15.7 Changes to the Agreement

All changes to this Agreement must be approved in writing by authorised officials of both Parties and follow the formal change control procedure set out in Schedule D to this Agreement.

15.8 Non-Solicitation

During the term of this Agreement and for two years after its expiration or termination, neither party will solicit any employee of the other party for the purposes of offering employment.

15.9 Exhibits

The Schedules referred to in, and attached to, this document is to be considered an integral part of this Agreement.

15.10 Governing Law

The laws pertaining in the jurisdiction of South Africa where the Supplier's principal office is located will govern this Agreement.

17.10.1 Contract Change Management Procedure

Scope

Changes will be made by written Agreement between the Client and the Supplier in accordance with the terms of this Schedule.

Procedure

To initiate a Contract Change, the following procedure shall be adopted:

- § The requestor prepares a request in collaboration with the other party, which shall contain or have attached all information necessary to enable the recipient of the request to consider the request and reach an informed conclusion, but at least the following information;
 - a description of the requested Contract Change;
 - the reason for the Contract Change;
 - suggested new or amended wording to the Agreement or the Service Orders in question;
 - suggested plan for the implementation of the Contract Change, if applicable;
 - implementation roles and responsibilities;
 - cost implications;
 - Impact analysis.
 - The requestor will submit the request to the appropriate authorised person at the other party as may be determined from time to time.
 - The recipient of the request shall within a reasonable time review the request. If necessary, the request will be debated and/or negotiated at a meeting scheduled between the Parties for purposes of the request.
 - If the Contract Change is not accepted, it shall be confirmed in writing to the other party.
 - If the initial persons from the respective Parties are unable to agree on a proposed Contract Change, the matter may be escalated to the Parties' respective executives.
 - If the Contract Change is rejected, the receiving Party shall provide to the requesting Party in writing, within 5 (five) Business Days, the reasons for rejecting the requested Contract Change request, whereupon the requesting Party may submit a revised Contract Change request which considers the receiving Party's reasons for rejecting the initial Contract Change request.

No change to this Agreement will be honoured unless reduced to writing and signed by all Parties to this Agreement.
